MIH Foundation Project

The Mary Immaculate Hospital (Mundare) Foundation is in the process of purchasing a 2020 20-passenger bus to replace the aging and ailing current bus. This bus will be used for trips taken by the residents of Mary Immaculate Care Centre. Donations (of any monetary value) to this project are being solicited and will be greatly appreciated. Cheques are payable to the Mary Immaculate Hospital (Mundare) Foundation and can be delivered to the Care Centre in person or by mail to Box 349, Mundare. Charitable receipts will be issued. For more information, contact Sylvia Zacharkiw, Foundation Chair at (780)764-4044

Mary Immaculate Auxiliary

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

Because of YOU, the annual Mary Immaculate Auxiliary's annual Bake Sale was a resounding success.

The Auxiliary wishes to thank everyone who helped in any way. Thank you for your monetary donations, your baking and other goodies, and for your purchases and for your continued support.

Thank you for continuing to embrace this worthwhile cause. Together we have helped the Care Centre residents smile more, sing merrily and celebrate being young-at-heart. Well done!

Please consider this your personal thank you. We could not have done it without you!

*If your name is missed, our apologies, please let us know.

The bake sale was very successful (the biggest ever) Raffle proceeds were donated to Lamont County Christmas Hamper.

We sure did appreciate the extra help with the assembling of trays, helping with the sale, decorating the hall, float and clean up.

Thank you to Joann Dubyk, Monica Dashkewich, Laura Lenkewich, Laureen Rees, Leanne Morrison, Terri Romaniuk, Dale Morrison, Frank Howard and Ray Talaga.

The day ended with a smaller parade, but very colorful. Thanks to Jerry Lysyk and his horses for bringing Jolly Old Santa.

Special thankyou to Allen Dubyk for all your help. Thanks also to Colin Zyla who made arrangements for Mary Artymko who sang traditional carols in the parade route & all the parade participants.

The Christmas Extravaganza, is an annual event hosted by Communities –in-Bloom Committee & in partnership with Mundare Library Board, Servus Credit Union and the Town of Mundare.

Next meeting date is Monday January 20, 2020 at 1:00pm in the Recreation Centre.

Best wishes for a Happy, Healthy New Year!

From all of us
